

1 Perth 1 by Teo Pirisi (2015)

Teo is a graphic designer and freelance illustrator with several collective and personal exhibitions in Italy and around the world.

2 Good Luck Bulldog by Steven Buckles (2025)

Baxter symbolises warmth, companionship and positivity. Visitors are encouraged to pet his copper ear for good fortune.

3 Sunrise on the Bay by Paul and Lisa Petale (2024)

Mosaic artists with 26 years of experience creating artworks that reflect the uniqueness and energy of each place.

4 Busy Bees by Peter Ryan, Daisy Fethers & Jack Collis (2025)

Ryan's artwork has always been referred to as bright, colourful, fun, entertaining and uplifting.

5 Bay View by Ken Rasmussen (2024)

Freshwater Bay is a central part of the painting, and you can see the community centre next to the park. Viewed inside the library during opening hours.

6 River Yarns by Julianne Wade (2022)

Julianne remains connected to her culture through painting and family. She maintains community connections through the West Australian Aboriginal Leadership Institute.

7 Mrs Herbert's Seat by Andrew Kay (2011)

Based in the north of England, Andrew Kay is an award winning life size sculptor whose work can be seen throughout the world.

CLAREMONT SOUTH

ART trail

The Town's public works of art reflect and inform visitors and the community of the rich and diverse history of the Town. The Town supports public art to help foster creativity in the community, make art accessible to everyone and to celebrate history, creativity and identity within the community.

The trail can be followed on foot or bike and be completed within 1 hour. For more information on the Town's public art trail visit claremont.wa.gov.au/community/arts-and-culture/public-art-trail